

On Top of Spaghetti–Again (Short Version, as Carol Remembers it)

Adapted for Readers Theater by Carol Montgomery

Time = about 50 seconds when spoken
(about 1 1/2 minutes if sung to the tune of “On Top of Old Smoky”)

Readability Level = Grade 2.1 (1.1 replacing Pasta and Sauce with A & B)

Cast (2): Pasta and Sauce

Suggestions: Try this as Choral Readers Theater or as a partner play.

Vocabulary:

| | |
|-----------|-----------|
| bush | mush |
| cheese | nothing |
| could | onto |
| covered | pasta |
| door | poor |
| floor | rolled |
| from | sauce |
| galore | sneezed |
| garden | somebody |
| grew | spaghetti |
| lonely | table |
| lost | tasty |
| meatballs | under |

Note: Two font options are provided for this short version.

- Chalkboard font – The lower case letter “a” in this font is similar to how one would hand print the letter.
- Helvetica font

On Top of Spaghetti–Again!

Adapted for Readers Theater by Carol Montgomery

Pasta: On top of spaghetti all covered with cheese,

Sauce: I lost my poor meatball when somebody sneezed.

Pasta: It rolled off the table, and onto the floor.

Sauce: And, then my poor meatball...

Pasta and Sauce: Rolled out of the door!

Pasta: It rolled in the garden and under a bush.

Sauce: And, then my poor meatball...

Pasta and Sauce: Was nothing but mush.

Pasta: The mush was as tasty as tasty could be,

Sauce: And, then my poor meatball...

Pasta and Sauce: Grew into a tree!

Pasta: The tree was all covered with meatballs galore,

Sauce: From one lonely meatball

Pasta and Sauce: That rolled out the door!

On Top of Spaghetti-Again!

Adapted for Readers Theater by Carol Montgomery

Pasta: On top of spaghetti all covered with cheese,

Sauce: I lost my poor meatball when somebody sneezed.

Pasta: It rolled off the table, and onto the floor.

Sauce: And, then my poor meatball...

Pasta and Sauce: Rolled out of the door!

Pasta: It rolled in the garden and under a bush.

Sauce: And, then my poor meatball...

Pasta and Sauce: Was nothing but mush.

Pasta: The mush was as tasty as tasty could be,

Sauce: And, then my poor meatball...

Pasta and Sauce: Grew into a tree!

Pasta: The tree was all covered with meatballs galore,

Sauce: From one lonely meatball

Pasta and Sauce: That rolled out the door!

On Top of Spaghetti–Again (Traditional Version)

Adapted for Readers Theater by Carol Montgomery

Time = about one minute when spoken
(about two minutes if sung to the tune of “On Top of Old Smoky”)

Readability Level = Grade 2.1 (1.1 replacing Pasta and Sauce with A & B)

Cast (2): Pasta and Sauce

Suggestions: Try this as Choral Readers Theater or as a partner play.

Vocabulary:

| | |
|-----------|-----------|
| beautiful | nothing |
| bush | onto |
| cheese | pasta |
| could | please |
| covered | rolled |
| door | sauce |
| early | sneeze |
| end | sneezed |
| ever | somebody |
| floor | spaghetti |
| garden | summer |
| grew | table |
| lost | tasty |
| meatballs | tomato |
| moss | under |
| mush | unless |
| next | |

Note: This traditional version is provided in both Helvetica font and Chalkboard font.

On Top of Spaghetti–Again (Traditional Version)

Adapted for Readers Theater by Carol Montgomery

Sauce: On top of spaghetti all covered with cheese,

Pasta: I lost my poor meatball...

Pasta & Sauce: When somebody sneezed!

Sauce: It rolled off the table, and onto the floor.

Pasta: And, then my poor meatball...

Pasta & Sauce: Rolled out of the door!

Sauce: It rolled in the garden and under a bush.

Pasta: And then my poor meatball...

Pasta & Sauce: Was nothing but mush.

Sauce: The mush was as tasty as tasty could be

Pasta: And early next summer...

Pasta & Sauce: It grew to a tree.

Sauce: The tree was all covered with beautiful moss

Pasta: It grew great big meatballs...

Pasta & Sauce: And tomato sauce!

Pasta: So...

On Top of Spaghetti–Again! (Traditional Version)

Sauce: If you eat spaghetti all covered with cheese,

Pasta: Hold on to your meatball...

Pasta & Sauce: And, don't ever sneeze! The End.

Pasta: Unless you want MORE!

Sauce: I want more, please...

(Repeat switching parts?)

On Top of Spaghetti-Again (Traditional Version)
Adapted for Readers Theater by Carol Montgomery

Sauce: On top of spaghetti all covered with cheese,

Pasta: I lost my poor meatball...

Pasta & Sauce: When somebody sneezed!

Sauce: It rolled off the table, and onto the floor.

Pasta: And, then my poor meatball...

Pasta & Sauce: Rolled out of the door!

Sauce: It rolled in the garden and under a bush.

Pasta: And then my poor meatball...

Pasta & Sauce: Was nothing but mush.

Sauce: The mush was as tasty as tasty could be

Pasta: And early next summer...

Pasta & Sauce: It grew to a tree.

Sauce: The tree was all covered with beautiful moss

Pasta: It grew great big meatballs...

Pasta & Sauce: And tomato sauce!

On Top of Spaghetti–Again! (Traditional Version)

Pasta: So...

Sauce: If you eat spaghetti all covered with cheese,

Pasta: Hold on to your meatball...

Pasta & Sauce: And, don't ever sneeze! The End.

Pasta: Unless you want MORE!

Sauce: I want more, please...

(Repeat switching parts?)

Curriculum Links (Valid in September 2022)

Spaghetti History and More

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Spaghetti>

Wiki article on spaghetti: history, production, preparation, serving, dishes, consumption, world records, and more.

<https://mobile-cuisine.com/did-you-know/spaghetti-fun-facts/>

“Spaghetti Fun Facts” includes random facts about spaghetti in small font with side bar ads. January 4th is National Spaghetti Day. Who knew? And, on April 1, 1957 the BBC did an April Fool’s spoof to make people believe that spaghetti did grow on trees. :)

“On Top of Spaghetti”

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/On_Top_of_Spaghetti

Wiki article on the history of the song. (No lyrics.) Includes a link to the song “On Top of Old Smokey,” an American folk song that “On Top of Spaghetti” is based on. (The lyrics to “On Top of Old Smokey” reflect a man who was disappointed because he lost his true love.)

<https://www.lyrics.com/lyric/31859486/Tom+Glazer/On+Top+of+Spaghetti>

Original lyrics to the silly folk ballad, “On Top of Spaghetti.” I wrote the Readers Theater script as I remembered the lyrics from my childhood; but, I knew the ending must be a bit different. It turns out that I missed the next to the last stanza; as a child, I made up my own. That is what I have in this Readers Theater script. But, I also included the original option (which you’ll hear in the videos of the song).

YouTube Song: “On Top of Spaghetti”

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tSbSjRJ9xz4>

Here’s a video with a static slide of the composer “On Top of Spaghetti.” I believe that this is from the recording of the original folk ballad “On Top of Spaghetti by Tom Glazer & the Do Re Mi Children’s Chorus 1963.” (It’s based on the old American folk tune “On Top of Old Smokey.”) He sings it once with an echo and then does it again feeding the words to the children—including the fun ending. (No lyrics to read, but he’s easy to understand.) 2:34

Warning: YouTube may insert random ads on this video.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CbO7KwgxYq4>

“On Top of Spaghetti” song with an old video of children eating spaghetti , plus the lyrics to the song. 2:00

Curriculum Links for On Top of Spaghetti–Again!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yU2GqcjJcdM>

Animated video without lyrics from Rock and Learn, “On Top of Spaghetti.” It’s kind of odd because there’s one plate of spaghetti for two children. The second time through the song the Italian Chef coaches the words. 3:39

Warning: YouTube may insert random ads on this video.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JGBE3eLpvm0>

Animated video from Vintage Nursery Rhymes, “On Top of Spaghetti Song–English Nursery Rhyme with Lyrics.” 2:55

Warning: YouTube may insert random ads on this video.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AF2Ou6uoD7k>

Animated video with some humorous additions, “On Top of Spaghetti–Camp Song–Scratch Garden.” Includes a harmonizing voice, but no lyrics. 2:06

Warning: YouTube may insert random ads on this video.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6itnCysoqsA>

Cute real life reenactment video with two children “On Top Of Spaghetti (chasing meatball)” includes the biggest meatball I’ve ever seen! Clever ending. 2:16

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=c_Ec-8TP7v8

“On Top of Spaghetti” LYRICS VIDEO, easy to read. Simple, with a colorful image in the corners of the slides. Children’s chorus with a little jazzy instrumental. You could use this for students to arrange a different Readers Theater adaptation of the lyrics. Or, just use this to teach the song. 1:56

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mO2Za2j4P74>

“Pasta Song” with LYRICS could also be adapted by your students into a Readers Theater script. Same style as the above video: easy to read, colorful image in a corner of the slide, children’s chorus with an upbeat instrumental backup. FESTIVE! 2:08

Extension Activity

Borrow the children’s library book Hard-Boiled Bugs for Breakfast: And Other Tasty Poems by Jack Prelutsky. Check out the poem on page 88, “I’ve Always Loved Spaghetti” for a fun Choral Readers Theater or to adapt to small group Readers Theater. (I don’t have permission to copy it here.) It’s clever, creative, and fun. Did you ever hear of the macaroni hills and “mining for spaghetti”?

